

*Are you 8-12 years old?
Are you into history?*

JOIN US!

Enfield YOUNG HISTORIANS

The Enfield Historical Society welcomes students from the community who want to learn more about their town's history. Enfield is steeped in history, from its founding in 1683 to the present day.

The Enfield Young Historian Initiative will provide children with a path to research and learn about the people who relocated themselves and their families to Enfield, Connecticut.

ACTIVITIES

*Walk and hike to historic sites
Interview knowledgeable people
Create historic trading cards
Research newspapers, books,
and ledgers
Participate in public events*

TOPICS

*Enfield's Settlement
Enfield Villages & Neighborhoods
Bigelow-Sanford Carpet Company
Hazard Powder Company
Immigrant cultures & traditions
Enfield Cemeteries*

NEXT MEETING:

Sunday, May 31, 2026

2:30-4:30 pm

Old Town Hall Museum 2nd Floor

If Interested Contact:

Jim Malley

860-966-4634

jmalley@enfieldschools.org