

MS 08

Harry Hilditch Photos Collection

A collection of material collected by Harry Hilditch, who owned and operated the Hilditch Market. He was also a photographer, a printer, a mason, an early bicyclist, and a gardener. The collection consists of three albums, two of entirely photos, and a third of some photos and newspaper articles.

Box 1:

- Photo albums (2), black binding. Black and white photographs of Enfield scenes, mostly of Thompsonville and other scenes around Enfield, c.1900-1960s.
- Album, photographs and news articles about Thompsonville
- Folder: All-America City award
- Three spiral bound books with pages from city directories pasted into them. Dates unknown.